Come, let us worship and fall down before God our King.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ, our King and our God.

Come, let us worship and fall down before Christ Himself, our King and our God.

THE PSALM OF INTRODUCTION—PSALM 103

Reader: Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, Thou hast been magnified exceedingly. Confession and majesty hast Thou put on, Who coverest Thyself with light as with a garment, Who stretchest out the heaven as it were a curtain; Who supporteth His chambers in the waters, Who appointeth the clouds for His ascent, Who walketh upon the wings of the winds, Who maketh His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire.

Who establisheth the earth in the sureness thereof; it shall not be turned back forever and ever. The abyss like a garment is His mantle; upon the mountains shall the waters stand. At Thy rebuke they will flee, at the voice of Thy thunder shall they be afraid.

The mountains rise up and the plains sink down, unto the place where Thou hast established them. Thou appointedst a bound that they shall not pass, neither return to cover the earth. He sendeth forth springs in the valleys; between the mountains will the waters run. They shall give drink to all the beasts of the field; the wild asses will wait to quench their thirst. Beside them will the birds of the heaven lodge, from the midst of the rocks will they give voice.

He watereth the mountains from His chambers; the earth shall be satisfied with the fruit of Thy works. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and green herb for the service of men, to bring forth bread out of the earth; and wine maketh glad the heart of man. To make his face cheerful with oil; and bread strengtheneth man's heart.

The trees of the plain shall be satisfied, the cedars of Lebanon, which Thou hast planted. There will the sparrows make their nests; the house of the heron is chief among them. The high mountains are a refuge for the harts, and so is the rock for the hares.

He hath made the moon for seasons; the sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night, wherein all the beasts of the forest will go abroad; young lions roaring after their prey, and seeking their food from God. The sun ariseth, and they are gathered together, and they lay them down in their dens. Man shall go forth unto his work, and to his labor until the evening. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

The earth is filled with Thy creation. So is this great and spacious sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, small living creatures with the great. There go the ships; there this leviathan, whom Thou hast made to play therein. All things wait on Thee, to give them their food in due season; when Thou givest it them, they will gather it. When Thou openest Thy hand, all things shall be filled with goodness; when Thou turnest away Thy face, they shall be troubled.

Thou wilt take their spirit, and they shall cease; and unto their dust shall they return. Thou wilt send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created; and Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let the glory of the Lord be unto the ages; the Lord will rejoice in His works. Who looketh on the earth and maketh it tremble, Who toucheth the mountains and they smoke. I will sing unto the Lord throughout my life, I will chant to my God for as long as I have my being.

May my words be sweet unto Him; I will rejoice in the Lord. O that sinners would cease from the earth, and they that work iniquity, that they should be no more. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

The sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God. (THRICE)
O our God and our Hope, glory to Thee!

“O LORD, I HAVE CRIED” IN TONE FOUR

Choir: O Lord, I have cried out unto Thee, hear Thou me; hear Thou me, O Lord. O Lord, I have cried out unto Thee, hear Thou me. Give ear to the voice of my supplication when I cry out unto Thee: hear Thou me, O Lord.

Choir: Let my prayer be set forth before Thee as the incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice; hear Thou me, O Lord.

- + Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and a protecting door round about my lips.
- + Incline not my heart to evil words, to make excuses in sins.
- + With men that work iniquity; and I will not communicate with the choicest of them.
- + The just man shall correct me in mercy and shall reprove me; but let not the oil of the sinner anoint my head.
- + For my prayer also shall still be against the things with which they are well pleased; their judges falling upon the rock have been swallowed up.

- + They shall hear my words, for they are sweet; as when the thickness of the earth is broken upon the ground, their bones are scattered by the side of hell.
- + But to Thee, O Lord, Lord, are mine eyes; in Thee have I put my trust, take not away my soul.
- + Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, and the traps of the workers of iniquity.
- + Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst I alone escape.
- + I cried unto the Lord with my voice, with my voice unto the Lord, did I make my supplication.
- + I poured out my supplication before Him; I showed before Him my trouble.
- + When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then Thou knewest my path.
- + In the way wherein I walked have they secretly laid a snare for me.
- + I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me.
- + Refuge failed me; no one cared for my soul.
- + I cried unto Thee, O Lord; I said: Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.
- + Attend unto my cry, for I am brought very low.
- + Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than I.

Verse 10. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Thy Name.

Verse 9. The righteous shall wait for me until Thou recompense me.

Verse 8. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord, Lord hear my voice.

Verse 7. Let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

For St. John the Baptist in Tone Four (Thou who wast called from on high)

Verse 6. If Thou, O Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? For with Thee there is forgiveness.

While executing as priest the sacred office in the divine Temple, offering up the people's prayers unto the Lord All-compassionate and Benefactor, the most divine Zacharias then beheld a divine and holy Angel crying unto him: Thy supplication and prayer is heard; take heart, O Elder, and doubt me not, for thou shalt beget a child, the Lord's divine Forerunner, who in truth is far greater than any of woman-born; in the power of Elias, he shall go before the promised Christ.

Verse 5. Because of Thy Name have I waited for Thee, O Lord; my soul hath waited upon Thy word, my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

While executing as priest the sacred office ... (repeat above)

Verse 4. From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch let Israel trust in the Lord.

Thou seemest strange in thy countenance and manner; strange to me be all these words and tidings thou hast brought; so Zacharias replied to him. For I came hither to ask salvation for all the people's sake, not indeed to have a child as thou hast said to me. I find thee contrary to the things which I have asked for; and I surmise that thou tellest not the truth, for how shall what thou sayest be confirmed? For Elizabeth suffereth from barrenness; as for me, as thou seest, I am very far advanced in years.

Verse 3. For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is abundant redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

Thou seemest strange in thy countenance ... (repeat above)

Verse 2. Praise the Lord, all ye nations; praise Him, all ye people.

Wherefore dost thou doubt my words, O Zacharias? Wherefore dost thou say I bring false tidings unto thee? I am an Archangel of our God, and stand before thee to tell thee all that hath been commanded me; and since thou hast not believed but rather disbelieved, thou shalt be dumb and shalt speak no more until thou beholdest that what I say, God Himself shall bring to pass; and when Elizabeth shall bear for thee the great voice of the Word, the Forerunner John, with thy tongue speaking plainly, thou shalt bless the God of Israel.

Verse 1. For His mercy is great toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever.

Wherefore dost thou doubt my words ... (repeat above)

DOXASTICON FOR ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST IN TONE SIX

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

John the Forerunner, the fruit of prayer, hath budded from a barren womb today. Rejoice, O wilderness, and dance for joy, O mankind! Behold, the preacher of repentance beginneth to take flesh in his mother's womb. Come, as we rejoice over his glorious conception, O ye feast-lovers, let us form a choir, crying: O thou greatest of them that are born of women, cease not to intercede for us who with faith honor thy divine conception, that we may find forgiveness of sins and Great Mercy.

THEOTOKION IN TONE SIX

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Who shall not beatify thee, most holy Virgin? Who shall not praise thy birth-giving, free of travailing and pain? For the only Son rising timelessly from the Father, Himself did become incarnate from thee in an inexplicable way. He, Who while God by nature, became for our sakes Man by nature, not divided into two persons, but known by two natures without mixture or confusion. To Him, O noble and most blessed one, plead for the salvation of our souls.

O GLADSOME LIGHT (Plain Reading)

People: O gladsome Light of the holy glory of the immortal, heavenly, holy and blessed Father: O Jesus Christ. Meet it is for Thee at all times to be magnified by joyous voices, O Son of God and Giver of life. Wherefore the whole world doth glorify Thee.

Guard them at all times, both during this present evening and in the approaching night, from every foe, from all adverse powers of the devil, and from vain thoughts and from evil imaginations.

Blessed and glorified be the might of Thy kingdom: of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

THE APOSTICHA FOR ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST IN TONE SIX

(Having laid up all their hope)

Entering in holiness into the Holy of Holies as the sacred Scripture saith, the most sacred Prophet and holy priest of God was addressed with these words by a holy Angel: Thine entreaty hath been heard, he said, for now the barrenness of thy wife Elizabeth hath been loosed, O Elder, and she shall bring forth unto thee a son, the Forerunner John, the lamp of the bright Sun, the Prophet of the Most High, and the voice of the Divine Word, Who shone on us from the Virgin Mother of God.

Verse 1. And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Most High; for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord, to prepare His ways.

The most blessed Elder spake in answer unto the Angel: Plainly now declare to me, how shall I know certainly this that thou hast said? For I am full of days, even as thou seest; barren is my wife Elizabeth; how canst thou tell me then things beyond man's nature and never seen? I am amazed and now suspect thou by no means speakest the truth, O man. Get thee hence, for I ask salvation for the people of the Lord, and not that I might receive a child, which doth seem impossible.

Verse 2. That we might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.

I am an Archangel of God the Almighty and Most High, and my name is Gabriel; thus the incorporeal to the elder spake. Be thou dumb for a time, exercising silence, seeing thou hast disbelieved my words. When thy wife beareth thee the resounding trumpet of God the Word, the Spirit then shall loose my tongue and thou shalt most clearly cry unto all: Thou, O child, shalt be called the Prophet of the Most High, and in grace thou in all truth shalt prepare His ways, as it hath seemed good to Him.

DOXASTICON OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST IN TONE SIX

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

O Baptist, thou camest forth as the Messenger from a barren woman's birth-pangs, and from thy very swaddling clothes thou madest thy dwelling in the wilderness; thou wast shown to be the seal of all the Prophets, for Him Whom they beheld in diverse manners, and foretold in dark sayings, the Same wast thou counted worthy to baptize in the Jordan. Thou heardest the voice of the Father from Heaven bearing witness to His Sonship, and thou beheldest the Spirit in the form of a dove drawing the Father's voice upon Him Who was being baptized, O thou that art higher than all the Prophets, cease not to intercede for us who faithfully celebrate thy memorial.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Thou art the true vine, O Theotokos, bearing the Fruit of life. Thee do we implore. Wherefore, O Lady, intercede with the Apostles and saints for the salvation of our souls.

THE HYMN OF ST. SIMEON THE GOD-RECEIVER (Plain Reading)

People: Lord, now lettest thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy word; for mine eyes have seen Thy salvation, which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people, a light to lighten the Gentiles and the glory of Thy people Israel.

THE TRISAGION PRAYERS

People: Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal: have mercy on us. (THRICE)
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

All-holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master, pardon our iniquities. Holy God, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy Name's sake.

Lord, have mercy. (THRICE)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory: of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

APOLYTIKION OF CONCEPTION OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST IN TONE FOUR

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

The Mystery which was hidden from everlasting and was unknown of the angels, O Theotokos, wast revealed through thee, to those who dwell upon earth.
