THE PSALM OF INTRODUCTION—PSALM 103

Reader: Bless the Lord, O my soul; O Lord my God, Thou hast been magnified exceedingly. Confession and majesty hast Thou put on, Who coverest Thyself with light as with a garment, Who stretchest out the heaven as it were a curtain; Who supporteth His chambers in the waters, Who appointeth the clouds for His ascent, Who walketh upon the wings of the winds, Who maketh His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire.

Who establisheth the earth in the sureness thereof; it shall not be turned back forever and ever. The abyss like a garment is His mantle; upon the mountains shall the waters stand. At Thy rebuke they will flee, at the voice of Thy thunder shall they be afraid.

The mountains rise up and the plains sink down, unto the place where Thou hast established them. Thou appointedst a bound that they shall not pass, neither return to cover the earth. He sendeth forth springs in the valleys; between the mountains will the waters run. They shall give drink to all the beasts of the field; the wild asses will wait to quench their thirst. Beside them will the birds of the heaven lodge, from the midst of the rocks will they give voice.

He watereth the mountains from His chambers; the earth shall be satisfied with the fruit of Thy works. He causeth the grass to grow for the cattle, and green herb for the service of men, to bring forth bread out of the earth; and wine maketh glad the heart of man. To make his face cheerful with oil; and bread strengtheneth man's heart.

The trees of the plain shall be satisfied, the cedars of Lebanon, which Thou hast planted. There will the sparrows make their nests; the house of the heron is chief among them. The high mountains are a refuge for the harts, and so is the rock for the hares.

He hath made the moon for seasons; the sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night, wherein all the beasts of the forest will go abroad; young lions roaring after their prey, and seeking their food from God. The sun ariseth, and they are gathered together, and they lay them down in their dens. Man shall go forth unto his work, and to his labor until the evening. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

The earth is filled with Thy creation. So is this great and spacious sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable, small living creatures with the great. There go the ships; there this leviathan, whom Thou hast made to play therein. All things wait on Thee, to give them their food in due season; when Thou givest it them, they will gather it. When Thou openest Thy hand, all things shall be filled with goodness; when Thou turnest away Thy face, they shall be troubled.

Thou wilt take their spirit, and they shall cease; and unto their dust shall they return. Thou wilt send forth Thy Spirit, and they shall be created; and Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let the glory of the Lord be unto the ages; the Lord will rejoice in His works. Who looketh on the earth and maketh it tremble, Who toucheth the mountains and they smoke. I will sing unto the Lord throughout my life, I will chant to my God for as long as I have my being.

May my words be sweet unto Him; I will rejoice in the Lord. O that sinners would cease from the earth, and they that work iniquity, that they should be no more. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

The sun knoweth his going down. Thou appointedst the darkness, and there was the night. How magnified are Thy works, O Lord! In wisdom hast Thou made them all.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia. Glory to Thee, O God. (THRICE)
O our God and our Hope, glory to Thee!

“O LORD, I HAVE CRIED” IN TONE FIVE

Choir: O Lord, I have cried out unto Thee, hear Thou me; hear Thou me, O Lord. O Lord, I have cried out unto Thee, hear Thou me. Give ear to the voice of my supplication when I cry out unto Thee: hear Thou me, O Lord.

Choir: Let my prayer be set forth before Thee as the incense, and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice; hear Thou me, O Lord.

- + Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth, and a protecting door round about my lips.
- + Incline not my heart to evil words, to make excuses in sins.
- + With men that work iniquity; and I will not communicate with the choicest of them.
- + The just man shall correct me in mercy and shall reprove me; but let not the oil of the sinner anoint my head.
- + For my prayer also shall still be against the things with which they are well pleased; their judges falling upon the rock have been swallowed up.
- + They shall hear my words, for they are sweet; as when the thickness of the earth is broken upon the ground, their bones are scattered by the side of hell.
- + But to Thee, O Lord, Lord, are mine eyes; in Thee have I put my trust, take not away my soul.

- + Keep me from the snare which they have laid for me, and the traps of the workers of iniquity.
- + Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst I alone escape.
- + I cried unto the Lord with my voice, with my voice unto the Lord, did I make my supplication.
- + I poured out my supplication before Him; I showed before Him my trouble.
- + When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then Thou knewest my path.
- + In the way wherein I walked have they secretly laid a snare for me.
- + I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me.
- + Refuge failed me; no one cared for my soul.
- + I cried unto Thee, O Lord; I said: Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.
- + Attend unto my cry, for I am brought very low.
- + Deliver me from my persecutors, for they are stronger than I.

Verse 10. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise Thy Name.

Verse 9. The righteous shall wait for me until Thou recompense me.

Verse 8. Out of the depths have I cried to Thee, O Lord, Lord hear my voice.

Verse 7. Let Thine ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication.

For St. Joseph of Damascus in Tone Five

Verse 6. If Thou, O Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? For with Thee there is forgiveness.

Rejoice, thou who didst blossom in the desert of the Lord from an Arabic Ghassanid root! For Christ our God made thee a shepherd of His sheep in the Church of Antioch, and today, on thy memorial, we bear witness that thou becamest an example for Priests and all believers. Therefore, O Lord, by the intercessions of Thy Martyr Joseph, have mercy upon us and save us.

Verse 5. Because of Thy Name have I waited for Thee, O Lord; my soul hath waited upon Thy word, my soul hath hoped in the Lord.

Yearning for knowledge from thy youth, thou overcamest poverty by weaving cloth by day and thine own soul by sciences at night, beseeching thy Lord to weave for thee a vestment to clothe thy temple, O His Spirit-bearer. Thou standest witnessing in thy Church that the Lord, One of the Three Hypostases, became man for our salvation.

Verse 4. From the morning watch until night, from the morning watch let Israel trust in the Lord.

Poverty encouraged thee in thy youth, O Joseph, to study Arabic language, logic and sciences, and with thy soul thou didst eagerly study the Torah, the Psalms, and the Gospel's Word. And so thou didst teach and proclaimed, crying out: Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit in your poverty the kingdom prepared for you, and be enriched by the kingdom of the King of the heavens.

Verse 3. For with the Lord there is mercy and with Him is abundant redemption, and He will deliver Israel from all his iniquities.

O Priest Joseph, showing a diligence befitting thy calling, thou didst honor thyself by preserving thy soul like Mary who conceived in her womb by the Holy Spirit. Thou didst labor and teach for the sake of Divine Love, and worthily delivered thy soul and those of thy companions unto thy Creator as a gift of love. Through their intercessions, O God, have mercy upon us and save us.

Verse 2. Praise the Lord, all ye nations; praise Him, all ye people.

O Priest of the Most High, thou didst weave the vestment of thy salvation on the night of the night of thy marriage, when thou didst read of thy love for God the Word to thy spouse Mariam, and remained in thy poverty seeking the face of thy Lord. Thy children nourished thee with bread as thou didst nourish the world with bread of everlasting life, feeding their souls and teaching them to wait peacefully upon the Lord in all of their afflictions.

Verse 1. For His mercy is great toward us, and the truth of the Lord endureth forever.

O Priest Joseph, today we praise thee on the feast of thy martyrdom, because thou wast fervent in faith, patient with great patience, meek, compassionate, humble, kind, zealous, calm, shrewd, strong, having no pride other than Christ thy God. Through thine intercessions make worthy of these Divine Gifts all of us who celebrate thy memory with faith.

DOXASTICON FOR ST. JOSEPH OF DAMASCUS IN TONE FIVE

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Today is thy fullness of time! Today thou didst finish thy course and keep thy faith. Therefore Christ thy God honored thee with martyrdom, as thou didst fly from roof to roof over houses like a beam of Divine Light. And when thou didst enter into thy tomb, which is thy Church of the Theotokos, thou didst strengthen the faith of the Lord's sheep, saying unto them: Behold, the completed mystical sacrifice is escorted in to take and receive us as participants in the Blood. Therefore, let us with faith and longing draw near and become partakers in the Crucifixion, the Death of martyrdom and the Resurrection.

THEOTOKION IN TONE FIVE

Both now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.

The sign of the Virgin Bride who knew not wedlock was at one time revealed in the Red Sea; for there Moses did cleave the waters, and there Gabriel was the minister of a miracle. At that time Israel crossed the deep and their feet were not wet, and now the Virgin hath given birth to Christ without seed. The sea remained uncrossed after the passing of Israel, and the blameless one remain incorruptible after giving birth to Emmanuel. Therefore, O eternal God, who wast before eternity, and who didst appear as man, have mercy upon us.

THE HOLY ENTRANCE

(While the Doxasticon is chanted, the following dialogue occurs QUIETLY as the clergy make the entrance.)

Deacon: Let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

Priest: In the evening and in the morning and at noonday we praise Thee, we bless Thee, we give thanks unto Thee, and we pray unto Thee, O Master of all, Lord Who lovest mankind: Direct our prayer as incense before Thee, and incline not our hearts unto words or thoughts of evil, but deliver us from all who seek after our souls. For unto Thee, O Lord, Lord, are our eyes, and in Thee have we hoped. Put us not to shame, O our God. For unto Thee are due all glory, honor, and worship: to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Deacon: Amen.

(When the clergy reach the center of the soleia, the first part of the great censuring begins. After the first part of the great censuring is completed, this next dialogue occurs QUIETLY.)

Deacon: Bless, father, the Holy Entrance.

Priest: Blessed is the entrance to Thy Holy Place, always, now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

(After the choir has finished, the following is said ALOUD.)

Deacon: Wisdom! Let us attend!

THE OLD TESTAMENT READINGS

The First Passage

Deacon: Wisdom!

Reader: The Reading from the Wisdom of Solomon. (5:15-6:3)

Deacon: Let us attend!

Reader: The just live forever and their reward is in the Lord, and their care with the Most High. Because of this they will receive the royal crown of majesty and the diadem of beauty from the Lord's hand; because He will shelter them with His right hand, and shield them with His arm. He will take His zeal as his panoply and He will arm creation to repel his foes. He will put on justice as a breastplate, and wear impartial judgment as a helmet. He will take holiness as an invincible shield. He will sharpen stern wrath as a sword. The world will fight with Him against the frenzied. Well-aimed bolts of lightning will go forth and will leap from the clouds to the target as from a well-strung bow. Hailstones full of wrath will be hurled from a catapult. The water of the sea will rage against them, while rivers will relentlessly overwhelm them. A spirit of power will stand against them, and will winnow them like a tempest. Lawlessness will make the whole earth a desert, and evil-doing will overturn the thrones of kings. Listen then, ye kings, and understand. Learn, ye judges of the ends of the earth. Give ear, ye that hold sway over a multitude and boast over crowds of nations. Because your might was given you from the Lord, and your power from the Most High.

The Second Passage

Deacon: Wisdom!

Reader: The Reading from the Prophecy of Isaiah. (43:9-14)

Deacon: Let us attend!

Reader: Thus says the Lord: All the nations have been assembled and rulers from them shall be assembled; who will declare these things among them? Or who will make heard to you the things from the beginning? Let them bring their witnesses and let them be justified, and them hear and let them speak what is true. Be My witnesses, and I too am a witness, says the Lord God, and My servant whom I have chosen; that you may know and believe Me, and understand that I am; before Me there was no other god, and after Me there will not be. I am God, and apart from Me there is none who saves. I have declared and I have saved; I reprov'd, and there was no strange god among you. You are my witnesses and I am a witness, says the Lord God. Again from the beginning I am, and there is none who can deliver from my hands; I will make, and who will turn it back? Thus says the Lord God Who redeems us, the Holy One of Israel.

The Third Passage

Deacon: Wisdom!

Reader: The Reading from the Prophecy of Ezekiel. (43:27-44:4)

Deacon: Let us attend!

Reader: It shall be from the eighth day and upwards, the Priests shall make your sacrifices upon the altar, and those for your salvation; and I shall accept you, says the Lord. And He turned me back by the way of the outer gate of the Holy Place, which looks towards the east, and it was shut. And the Lord said to me: This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no one shall pass through it, because the Lord, the God of Israel, will enter through it, and it shall be shut. Therefore this prince shall sit in it to eat bread. By the way of the Elam of the gate He shall enter, and by that way He shall go out. And He brought me by the way of the gate towards the North, opposite the House; and I saw, and behold the whole house of the Lord was full of glory.

Choir: To Thee, O Lord.

- All bow their heads as the priest says the following prayer:

Priest: O Lord our God, Who didst bow the heavens and come down for the salvation of mankind: Look upon Thy servants and Thine inheritance; for unto Thee, the fearful Judge Who yet lovest mankind, have Thy servants bowed their heads and submissively inclined their necks, awaiting not help from men but entreating Thy mercy and looking confidently for Thy salvation. Guard them at all times, both during this present evening and in the approaching night, from every foe, from all adverse powers of the devil, and from vain thoughts and from evil imaginations.

Blessed and glorified be the might of Thy kingdom: of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

THE APOSTICHA FOR ST. JOSEPH OF DAMASCUS IN TONE EIGHT

O Joseph Priest of the Most High, thou didst preach and teach, and didst copy a great number of manuscripts to instruct by the written word what thou didst proclaim in sermons, leaving as an inheritance for those who love the word and the Word of God, faithfully preserved and gathered in thy library the thousands of books that were burned incinerated upon thy martyrdom. Grant us we who praise thee to learn from the unburned Vessel of the Word.

Verse 1. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints.

O Hieromartyr Joseph, when thou wast known as a preacher of the word and a teacher of logic and sciences, thy Lord chose thee to serve Him and called thee, saying: O lamb of Christ, come! O Priest of the Most High, approach! Thus thou didst draw near to Him as a poor youth full of love, endurance, knowledge, and evangelical steadfastness. Since thou didst receive the gift of Christ, intercede with the compassionate God to accept us also.

Verse 2. Wondrous is God in His Saints, the God of Israel.

O Martyr Joseph, thou didst establish a new kind of martyrdom for divine love when you didst found a school to teach theology as love of God, that those yearning for the word may become shepherds and Priests leading with the staff of Christ His rational sheep.

DOXASTICON OF ST. JOSEPH OF DAMASCUS IN TONE FIVE

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

Thou didst excel in preaching, O Joseph, for thy Lord granted thee the gift of proclaiming His Word, wherefore thou wast called the second John Chrysostom. To purify thee of vanity, Christ permitted the enemies of truth to confront thee so that thou couldst conquer them by the Name of thy Lord Who created thee and knew thee from the womb and guided thee and thy flock to salvation.

Both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

O most revered Virgin, O thou through whom my Savior Christ the Lord didst appear unto those who were in darkness, He being the Sun of Justice who wishes to give light to those whom He had made with His own hands after His likeness: Thou art the temple and the gate, the palace and the throne of the King; wherefore, O all-praised one, thou hast attained with Him maternal privilege. Intercede ceaselessly for the salvation of our souls.

THE HYMN OF ST. SIMEON THE GOD-RECEIVER

Choir: Lord, now lettest thou Thy servant depart in peace, according to Thy word; for mine eyes have seen Thy salvation, which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people, a light to lighten the Gentiles and the glory of Thy people Israel.

THE TRISAGION PRAYERS

People: Holy God, Holy Mighty, Holy Immortal: have mercy on us. (THRICE)
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

All-holy Trinity, have mercy on us. Lord, cleanse us from our sins. Master, pardon our iniquities. Holy God, visit and heal our infirmities for Thy Name's sake.

Lord, have mercy. (THRICE)

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in Heaven, hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

Priest: For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory: of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit; now and ever, and unto ages of ages.

Choir: Amen.

APOLYTIKION OF ST. JOSEPH OF DAMASCUS IN TONE FIVE

Come, ye faithful, let us honor the martyr of Christ, a priest of the Church of Antioch; who by the word of the Word, and by his blood and the blood of his companions, baptized the land of Syria, its Church and its people. Being immersed in the light of the Gospel from his youth, he worked and taught and defended the Church of Christ and her flock. O Father Joseph of Damascus, be for us an example, defending us and interceding for us fervently before the Savior.

THEOTOKION IN TONE FIVE

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen.

Rejoice, O uncrossed gate! Rejoice, O wall and protection of those who hasten to thee! Rejoice, O quiet haven who hast not known wedlock! O thou who hast given birth in the flesh to thy Creator and God, thou shalt continue to intercede for the sake of those who praise and worship thy birth-giving.

Choir: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit; both now and ever, and unto ages of ages. Amen. Lord, have mercy (thrice). Father, bless.
